

: What's your Bingo end-zone dance?

Well, tell you hubby that you are not crazy. While I dont have a dance or anything that I do when I win at bingo, I have seen all sorts of little things going on at bingo when someone does win.

One lady has a little "bingo dance" that she does when she wins, and when she wins big, she really dances. Lol

I have also heard chants of "I won, I won, I won" going on after a bingo win.

So no, you are not so different from others that play bingo. So he can put away the straight jacket. Rofl.
