: What's your Bingo end-zone dance? Posted by khanna141 - 2010/10/13 17:35
Well, tell you hubby that you are not crazy. While I dont have a dance or anything that I do when I win a bingo, I have seen all sorts of little things going on at bingo when someone does win.
One lady has a little "bingo dance" that she does when she wins, and when she wins big, she really dances. Lol
I have also heard chants of "I won, I won" going on after a bingo win.
So no, you are not so different from others that play bingo. So he can put away the straight jacket. Rofl.
